Cash boost for high streets

by Dick Townsend-Smith

TWO town centres in the borough are to get cash awards to help breathe new life into the community and boost local business.

The money is coming from the London Mayor's £9 million High Street Fund, designed to improve shopping centres and make them more appealing for both locals and visitors alike.

The cash has been made available to local councils and other groups who can show that their plans will transform local high streets.

Four bids were made to the High Street Fund to help regenerate Eltham, New Eltham, Abbey Wood and Plumstead with support from the royal borough.

Now Abbey Wood is to receive £150,000 to improve public spaces and buildings along Wilton Road, next to Abbey Wood station, and support local businesses by revitalising the High Street ready for the arrival of Crossrail and the extra housing planned.

Cllr Danny Thorpe, the council's cabinet member for regeneration and transport, said: "Local businesses are vital to the economy. We already support initiatives such as Small Business Saturday to help encourage visitors to our local high streets."

Thanks for looking after my Grandmother

DEAR Sir,

I would like to write on behalf of my disabled grandmother. On Sunday 1st March whilst driving through Greenwich she experienced a puncture in her car. Your staff Edward Mendy and Danny Leadbetter, were extremely helpful, they contacted the RAC on her behalf, stayed with her until they arrived sought out and purchased her a cup of tea, and made her feel safe.

I would like to express a great big thank you to them and to let you know that you have amazing men working in your team.

Please let them know how special they are on her behalf.
Thanks again

Michelle Lea

● A Council Spokesperson said: Dear Michelle, thank you so much for taking the trouble to write to us. We are sorry your mother had a bad experience but pleased that two of our staff reacted in such an exemplary way. We will make sure we pass on your words of appreciation.

High calibre musicianship at Charlton House free concerts

YOU say the Charlton House Library concerts feature local artists. That is hardly accurate. No disrespect to any local musician but the concert series features musicianship of the highest standard, very often by students from or graduates of the top London colleges and academies of music. This is music playing of an international standard and the lunchtime Friday recitals are gems to be treasured.

Peter Kendall, Greenwich

● A royal borough spokesperson said: "Performances at Charlton House feature musicians of all standards and we encourage residents to go along and enjoy the music, whether they are aficionados or are just looking to try something new. You can enjoy free classical music concerts in the historic setting of the Old Library every Friday at 1pm. Further information at www.charlton-house.org/whats-on

600 visitors at library's first Sunday opening

MORE than 600 people attended Woolwich library as it opened for the first time on a Sunday.

The extended opening hours are the latest in a long line of measures to meet the needs of local residents wanting to access local libraries. Greenwich will benefit from a new library opening over the next few months, plans will be put forward to improve Plumstead library and all libraries will have improved IT access. Over 600 people visited Woolwich Library as it opened its doors for the first time on a Sunday during its new opening hours of 12pm and 4pm.

Scores of customers made the most of the facilities and activities on offer with 78 families attending the Baby Rhyme Time session and over 100 people taking part in the 'Messy Afternoon' craft event - just two of the many regular events held in our libraries. Councillor Miranda Williams, Royal Borough of Greenwich cabinet member for Culture and Creative Industries said: "It was great to see over 600 people visiting Woolwich Library on the first Sunday it was open.

"It is already London's busiest library and the second busiest in the UK and we hope that by listening to local residents and opening it across the weekend, even more local people will take advantage of all it has to offer.

"It is all part of our plans to improve our local libraries at a time when many Councils are having to close theirs down. The new Greenwich Centre, containing a new library and leisure centre, will open this spring. We will be consulting local residents over improvements to the library service in Plumstead which could see a new library, leisure facilities, cultural and community space for residents under one roof."

More council services online

THANKS to new technology, residents can now access even more services on the council's website. The improvements are the latest in a range of developments which introduce new ways to apply, report and pay online for council services.

Applying or paying for services via the web will now be quick and easy for residents, who will have 24 hour access. It enables the council to deliver services more efficiently, freeing up customer services for those residents who need more assistance or have more complex needs.

Reporting road and street faults online is now easier with residents now able to fill in a simplified form and pinpoint the location on a map or send a photo to report common problems. There is also an option to report street problems using smartphones and tablets via the location settings or by typing in a postcode. The new form also collects more information to help the highways team locate and resolve the problem more efficiently.

Additionally, residents can now renew and pay for their parking permits in one complete transaction online. Until now, residents were required to apply by post or telephone, or visit a council service centre.

Cllr Harry Singh, the royal borough's cabinet member for customer services, green technologies and IT told GT: "We hope that the upgraded system will make life easier for people when using the internet to tell us about a problem. The council is committed to improving our services for residents and make as much savings as possible; this new system is a great example of this."

Local bids win London Mayor funding

This demonstrates how we can secure much-needed funding by working in partnership with local traders and community organisations."

Teresa Pearce, MP for Erith and Thamesmead, said: "This is great news. This funding is a vital step in the regeneration of Wilton Road. It will be used to improve shop and building frontages, and to support existing traders."

New Eltham has also been awarded £15,500 by the London Mayor after a bid from the Community Association of New Eltham (CANE) and the New Eltham Residents' Association which was supported by the council.

A New Eltham Business Association to support traders will now have funds to get going, and there are plans for a new community festival and better street signs.

John Killick, secretary of CANE, said: "We intend to put a second bench in New Eltham shopping area and put planters around the 12 cherry trees growing on pavement, which can be planted with bedding plants to improve the ambience of the area.

"We are also hoping to have a fete, hopefully in July, to put New Eltham on the map for local people."

Teachers help Gambian school

A TEACHER from Charlton Manor School and two of her colleagues have just returned from a week in The Gambia, helping children in a remote village school.

Katy Pease, who started teaching Year 5 in September, set off with school premises officer Michael Rivers, and Shelley Johannsen, who is responsible for special needs at the school.

"We went because we wanted to see how we could help the children and the school, and help it progress," she said. "There was just one class, with 25 children aged from six to nine.

The school funds training for a Gambian teacher, and other people sponsor individual children. We went to see how our sponsorship money is being used, and how we could help the children in the future."

SCHOOL PALS: the Charlton Manor staff pose for a special school photo with pupils at the school in The Gambia

While there, the three helped with lessons in the school, where English is the common language among the five different ones used by the children. They visited children in their homes to see how they lived, and handed out mosquito nets where they were needed.

Said Katy: "The children were absolutely so amazed to be with us, and so friendly. They wanted to touch us and have their photos taken with us. They were really lovely.

"On the last evening we met the other volunteers, and I've now taken on the role of social media for the group.

My Year 5 class at Charlton Manor want to do things to raise money for them to help them build a new school on a permanent site, which has toilets and running water."

GENERAL Gordon Square played host to a day-long festival of fair trade to mark the end of Fairtrade Fortnight. Visitors enjoyed live music and entertainment from a stage as part of the festivities which started at noon on February 28. The event included a marquee with Fair Trade stalls and an opportunity to learn about sustainable products. Visitors included royal borough council leader Denise Hyland and deputy leader Cllr John Fahy who signed the Good Food in Greenwich pledge promising to support the production and consumption of healthy environmentally friendly produce. The Mayor Cllr Mick Hayes and the Mayoress Gillian Hayes also called by and had a ride on a smoothie-making bike. Cllr Hyland said: "The day was a fitting end to a fortnight of events across the borough. It was also a great opportunity to learn about the Fairtrade campaign and to support local traders and businesses which offer a better deal for farmers and food producers around the world."

Hyde New Homes
Making a better place to live

THE royal borough is asking for ideas for an exciting development plan that could see up to £4 million invested in a new Plumstead leisure complex.

The proposals would see the library, leisure and cultural activities located in one place as well as further investment in facilities – all with the aim of improving the building, increasing visitor numbers and creating a new, thriving hub at the heart of the community.

Plumstead library remains popular and the building is well known in the area, but it has large areas of unused space that could be put to better use. The council's aim is to maximise the under-used space and convert sections of the building, whilst keeping the best of what already exists, to create a re-designed and architecturally striking Plumstead Centre, all in one location.

This could include health and fitness and multi-use rooms, studios for physical activity, cultural events and exhibitions and a refurbished library. Additionally the new centre could be decked out with more computers, internet access available for longer to support local residents, new digital technology to extend and improve customer services and cultural programmes that are designed by the local community.

Plumstead resident Donald Ogubo said: "It will be great to have some decent sports facilities in the area – just what we need and improving the library at the same time makes sense."

Cllr Miranda Williams, the royal borough's cabinet member for culture and creative industries told GT: "Residents' views and opinions are at the forefront of our thinking when considering plans like these and it's vital that local people are able to have their say about how the centre at Plumstead will look and what facilities are available there in the future."

"Cultural, leisure and library services are vital to the community."

"Having spaces and places where people can get active and take part – whether that is an exercise class, baby rhyme time, a reading group or just meet, talk and connect with others, helps us to become healthier, happier and makes communities stronger and safer."

Teaching Vacancies

Are you looking for your next teaching challenge?

Wanted for September (and earlier), a new or experienced teacher who is resilient, positive and committed to providing excellent outcomes for all. Our wonderful children learn best from teachers who are fair, set high expectations and have a love of learning. Could this be you?

Bishop John Robinson Church of England Primary School is situated just inside the border of Greenwich. With just one form of entry, we serve a strong community of families who value education and have high aspirations for their children. Think you know Thamesmead? Think again. We are surrounded by trees, open spaces, the River Thames and of course are just a short bus ride away from the World Heritage Site in Greenwich. Our strong Christian Values (Compassion, Forgiveness and Trust) support all aspects of our school and help form the basis of how we behave, learn and play.

This is what OFSTED said about our school in October 2014:

- Governors, all leaders and teachers are united in their ambition for this to be an outstanding school
- The behaviour of pupils is good. Pupils love their school and like coming here
- Because teachers plan interesting activities in all lessons, pupils are fully engaged in what they are doing
- On the whole, a vibrant and upbeat atmosphere ensures that pupils are keen and motivated to learn
- Since the previous inspection in 2010 achievement has been consistently good in Key Stages 1 and 2.
- Children are nurtured well in the early years classes

Does this sound like somewhere you would like to teach?

What we can offer you:

- Small, 1 Form of Entry Primary School with a Strong Community Feel
- OFSTED GOOD in October 2014 so no visit for some time!
- Inner London Allowance on the very boarder of Kent
- Main scale and subject leader positions
- Working across all age range. Foundation stage, KS1 and KS2
- Chance to join a new and dedicated team
- A real opportunity to make your mark on a school and its community

Come for a visit to see what we are trying to achieve here.

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

Edition 433

BIDDING FOR PROPERTIES

People on the Housing register are able to bid for all properties, regardless of their banding. You must be eligible for the size of property and bids will be considered in the following order:

First Band A, followed by Band B both in priority date order. Those in Band C will then be considered in registration date order.

Please note that there will still be some properties with age restrictions so only people of this age group can apply for these.

BAND

- A is for applicants in unsatisfactory housing, including people moving due to demolition and those underoccupying their homes.
- B is for applicants the Royal Borough of Greenwich must prioritise according to the law, particularly homeless people, and others with an urgent need to move for medical or welfare reasons.
- C is for all applicants on the housing register, including those that are in priority bands A and B.

How do I apply?

1

Get on the list

First, you've got to be on the housing waiting list to join the scheme. If you're not, register an application on line at www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk

Find your applicant number

It will be on the letter you've already had from the Royal Borough of Greenwich about the new scheme. You'll need that number and the reference number of the property you're after, which will be on the advert.

3

Pick out your ideal property

by looking in Greenwich Time or regularly checking the website:

www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

Click on your preference on the website. If you don't have a computer, you can always use one for free at either The Eltham or Woolwich Centre or a local library.

Apply in one of three ways

- Text bidding is now available and the number to use is 07786207913. For further information please see page 2, or
- Phone the 24-hour hotline 020 8921 4340. It's an automatic push-button system and calls will be charged at the normal local rate, or
- Via the Royal Borough of Greenwich's website www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk/homes

The next edition of GreenwichHomes will be available on Wednesday 18 March 2015 at midday. Closing date for all applications for this issue is midnight on Sunday 15 March 2015.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR ROYAL BOROUGH TENANTS WHO ARE MOVING

DON'T GET A BILL AFTER YOU LEAVE

Under the conditions of your tenancy agreement, you have a responsibility to leave your property in an acceptable state of repair. We may visit you to check this. If we consider your property is in an unacceptable condition, you may be prevented from moving or be recharged for work.

To avoid getting an unwelcome bill, follow these rules:

- Repair any damage caused to the property by you, your family or visitors to your home.
- Make good any changes you have made to your property e.g. put back any doors that you have removed.
- Make sure your garden is not overgrown and you have cleared all garden waste.
- Clear all your items from the inside and the outside of the property. This includes any loft space, external cupboards or sheds.
- Return all the keys to the Royal Borough's offices no later than midday on Monday (or Tuesday if it is a Bank Holiday). You will be charged a further week's rent if you do not return your keys on time.

If you leave repairs that are your responsibility, or items that require disposal you will be charged the cost of this work.

Special Collection Service

The Royal Borough offers a Special Collection Service for tenants who are moving and want to dispose of something big and bulky, like a sofa or a fridge, and even unwanted clothes and other textiles.

Simply contact Waste Services on: 020 8921 4661 and tell them where you live and what you would like taken away.

Items we will collect include:

Fridges, freezers, washing machines, beds, sofas, clothes and carpets (carpets must be cut up and tied into manageable bundles that one person can carry).

Items we DO NOT collect include:

Fitted kitchens, bathroom suites, boilers, sheds, fences and rubble.

For further information, please contact Waste Services on: 020 8921 4661

Please leave your home in a good condition!

MOVES ACROSS LONDON

The housingmoves scheme is run by the Greater London Authority and is aimed at social housing tenants who want to move from one part of London to another.

Priority is given to people who:

- have more bedrooms than they currently need
- want to move to be closer to employment or higher education
- need to provide care for family members or friends.

Tenants must have a clear rent account and no on-going record of anti-social behaviour.

Royal borough tenants can register on the scheme and bid for council or housing association property in other parts of London. To register your interest please visit:

www.housingmoves.org

Applicants over 50+ can apply

Choice hotline 020 8921 4340

GreenwichHomes

Royal Borough of Greenwich's Choice Based Lettings Scheme

IMPORTANT POLICY INFORMATION FOR THOSE AWARDED PRIORITY

When a priority is awarded, you will receive one offer of accommodation.

The following rules are used to allocate properties to applicants in Bands A, B and C, to make sure the Council makes best use of housing stock to meet needs.

- Two children (whatever gender) under 10 years old can share a bedroom
- Two children (same gender) under 16 years old can share a bedroom
- Two children of opposite gender where at least one is 10 years old or over need a bedroom each
- Each person over 16 years old needs their own bedroom
- A couple and lone parents need one bedroom
- Expected babies are counted as a person from the six month of pregnancy
- Band C applicants - Houses are allocated to a household with children (aged 15 or under)

Only RBG tenants who currently occupy houses in bands A and B, will be considered for rehousing to another house. All other priority applicants will be considered for flats or maisonettes.

Note: There are separate Allocations Policies for applicants with priority from regeneration areas.

Like for Like Moves

Council tenants housed through priority Bands A & B, are generally offered a similar type of property to that they currently occupy, of the size they require. This is because rehousing is being offered to meet safety or other needs, rather than to provide more desirable housing. Tenants, who want to move to improve the quality of their accommodation, must do so through Band C, where applicants are housed in date order.

For full details on our policies, please see the Allocations Scheme which is available on the Royal Borough of Greenwich website

This is what happened to the homes advertised in issue 430

Marathon effort

GOING THE DISTANCE: Ben Shearer (No 225) and team mates speed off while other runners, below, keep up the pace

10k Greenwich Park warm up for Harriers

by Richard Morgan

RUNNERS of all abilities descended on Greenwich Park last week (March 1) to take on the Meridian 10k, with all 364 finishers unanimous in describing the venue as stunning.

For some the 10k's a challenge in itself but for others it's a taster for the race of a lifetime seven weeks hence.

This year's London Marathon on Sunday, April 22 – is just round the corner and this is ideal preparation and a number of Harriers have already entered.

Mick Ellsmore, of the Cambridge Harriers and race director of the Meridian 10k told GT: "They get used to the area and see the Marathon start and many will run sub three hours. It's an iconic venue as we cross the Meridian twice."

Ben Shearer was third, the first of the Harriers, in 34 minutes, 6 seconds. With three Harriers in the top 10, the Sutcliffe Park-based club had a good day.

"It's a critical part of our funding", said Mick, "with proceeds invested in our youngsters".

But the Harriers are more than their serious runners, they are friendly and fun and for families. Sunday's events included a fun run and a 2km race for youngsters. Sixty six finished the challenge with Lara Atkinson, the first of the Harriers, coming third in a highly respectable 7.07.
